

Major Career Roles

Chair, Travis Perkins plc
CEO, Save the Children International
Non-Executive Director, Compagnie Financière Richemont SA
Non-Executive Director, WPP plc
Non-Executive Director, Standard Chartered plc
CEO, London First

Other Career Highlights

Non-Executive Director and Digital Impact and Sustainability Committee Chair, BT Group plc
Trustee, Disasters Emergency Committee
Division Managing Director, Thomson Reuters Corp.
Director of Global Marketing, Cortex Corp.

Jasmine Whitbread is an experienced board member of listed companies, having transitioned her career across different sectors and countries, developing considerable experience helping CEOs navigate the increasingly complex Sustainability agenda.

Jasmine is a Non-Executive Director and Chair of the Governance and Sustainability Committee of Compagnie Financière Richemont SA, a Non-Executive Director and Compensation Committee Chair of WPP plc and Adviser at Brown Advisory Inc.

Previously, Jasmine was Chair of Travis Perkins plc, Non-Executive Director and Culture and Sustainability Committee Chair of Standard Chartered plc.

Jasmine was the first-ever CEO of Save the Children International, aligning all 30 members of the federation behind a single mission, strategy and campaigning voice spanning over 100 countries.